Peer review is essential in academic publishing, ensuring the integrity, rigor, and quality of scholarly work. It provides authors with valuable feedback to refine their research and helps maintain the credibility of scientific communication. On behalf of the International Journal of Transformative Health Professions Education (IJTHPE), we deeply appreciate the time and expertise contributed by reviewers, whose valuable and insightful evaluations are essential to the publication process. Their constructive insights and commitment to upholding ethical standards strengthen the work we publish and enhance the advancement of knowledge in the field of health professions education. We extend our heartfelt thanks to our reviewers for their dedication and invaluable contributions to the academic community.
