On behalf of the International Journal of Transformative Health Professions Education (IJTHPE), sincere appreciation is extended to all peer reviewers for their valuable contributions throughout the review process. The time and attention dedicated to reading each manuscript, identifying areas for improvement, and offering balanced, constructive feedback have been central to strengthening the academic quality and coherence of the journal's content. These efforts not only support the development of individual manuscripts but also uphold the integrity of the journal's publication process. The editorial team recognises the essential role of reviewers in ensuring that published work meets scholarly and professional expectations. Continued collaboration with reviewers remains key to the journal's mission of advancing research and knowledge in transformative health professions education.
